WARREN G. HARDING CHOSEN AS NEXT PRESIDENT

G. O. P. LANDSLIDE TUESDAY SMASHES RECORD

Great Avalanche of Republican Votes Continues To Increase

Returns From West Add To Early Totals of Republicans.

Harding Will Have 330 And Possibly 350 Electoral Votes

Big Majority in Both Branches Of Congress Sure

Victory Most Overwhelming In Party History

Not One State North or West Carried by Cox

(By Associated Press)

New York, November 3.—The Republican landslide continued to roll along in an even greater proportion today as belated election returns came in from the West. Besides electing Harding, it assured the Republicans would increase their margin in both houses of congress, and in the Senate in particular, which changes their precarious control to a substantial majority.

The congressional returns from many states were slow, as were indeed returns on the vote for president. But on the basis of actual returns at hand, and indications from partial returns coming in, it seemed that Harding would have not less than 330 votes in the electoral college, with a probability of more than 350, while all that could be counted in the Cox column were the 127 votes from the solid South.

Unless some sudden change were to appear, it seemed the returns were making good the Republican prediction Cox would not carry a western or a northern state.

In many of its aspects the election was very unusually. It developed what may turn out to be the greatest Republican victory of party history. Both the Democratic candidate and his chief managers conceded defeat before enough returns actually were in to show it in figures.

With the election went what President Wilson characterized as a "solemn referendum" on the League of Nations issue; and if it may be said, the electorate regarded their votes as an expression on that question, they registered a preference for Harding, who declared for "staying out," as against Cox, who declared for "going in," with a landslide which exceeded the expectations of the most enthusiastic Republicans.

Everywhere the shift toward the Republican column was heavy. Many states which went to the Democratic strength when Wilson defeated Hughes in the sensational election of 1916 returned to the Republican column.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT

G. O. P. CONTROL IN CONGRESS STRENGTHENED

Absolute Control in House And Senate is Assured.

(By Associated Press)

New York, November 3.—Republican control of Congress for another two years with an increased House majority and prospective increase in the Senate was a major part of the election sweep.

A net gain of 20 votes in the House was shown with complete returns from only 17 states.

Fifteen Republican senatorial candidates had come in winner today and seven others had substantial leads while in ten other states Republican entrants were reported in the van.

NEBRASKA IN THE LANDSLIDE

(By Associated Press)

Omaha, Neb. Nov. 2.—At 11:45 tonight when 466 out of 1877 precincts in Nebraska had been heard from, Senator Harding had a plurality of 31,631 over Governor Cox. If the ratio is maintained the Republican nominee will carry the state by about 129,000.

GEN. SPEAKS SEEMS WINNER IN TWELFTH

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—General John C. Speaks, Republican, apparently has been elected congressman in the twelfth Columbus district over Arthur P. Lamneck, Democrat, in 37 precincts out of 387. Speaks had a plurality of approximately 1,000.

CRABBE ACT VOTE

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 3.—Additional returns received today from rural counties cut the lead established against the prohibition enforcement act. In 2,066 precincts, the negative vote was in the majority by a little more than 46,000. The vote was: yes, 237,705; no, 283,918.

DIES IN COLUMBUS

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 3.—William Smart, 72, retired farmer, Washington C. H., died at Protestant Hospital Wednesday morning.

GREETING IS WIRED HARDING BY COX

Governor Proves a Good Loser And Early Realized Defeat

Home County Only Returns A Few Hundred Lead For Cox

Pledge Support to Executive Authority of Nation

(By Associated Press)

Dayton, O., November 3.—Governor Cox, the defeated presidential candidate, today wired his congratulations to Senator Harding, the President-elect, pledging support "as a citizen to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise."

His message, the first act of the defeated candidate today, read:

"In the spirit of America I accept the decision of the majority, tender as the defeated candidate my congratulations and pledge as a citizen my support to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise."

From early last night Governor Cox had no illusions about the final results but he refused to make any statements. His newspaper extra announcing a "Republican Landslide; Harding Wins," was said by him to be a "purely impersonal expression." But once it was in the street he manifested little interest in the accumulating returns.

The Governor proved a good loser and the last hour spent at his office was devoted to comforting disconsolate callers.

He never lost his smile nor did Mrs. Cox who spent the evening with him. To all friends who came with condolences he added these words to his smile.

"I'm proud of your interest." Apparently he made good his campaign assertion that for him the result was impersonal.

Before midnight his thoughts turned to his coming vacation.

Outside the newspaper plant there gathered a Cox crowd to watch the returns, but it too lost interest and dispersed before midnight after receiving little cheerful news. In a nearby street a throng stood about Republican headquarters and made merry until early hours. Its shouts reached the Governor as he quit his shop and left for home shortly after midnight.

Dayton itself did not accept the Governor's candidacy with great favor. He lost his own precinct by 12 votes but incomplete returns from Montgomery county including the city gave him a few hundred lead over his opponent.

SHOWS HEAVY LOSS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, November 3.—Private operation of the railroads for the first six months after the end of federal control will cost a total of $666,656,000.

ALVIN COOLIDGE

DAVIS SEEMS CERTAIN WINNER

Returns in From More Than Two-Thirds of State

Give Davis Lead of More Than 80,000

Harding's Ohio Plurality May Reach 350,000

Willis Wins Over Julian By 200,000 Votes

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 3.—Late returns this afternoon from yesterday's election in Ohio showed Senator Warren G. Harding leading Governor James M. Cox by a plurality of 282,040 on returns from 5,580 of the 7,145 precincts in Ohio.

The vote stood: Harding, 885,586; Cox, 603,546.

The late tabulations showed but little change in the vote for governor. Returns from 4,260 precincts gave Davis a lead of 84,532 over Donahey, with the vote standing: Davis, 575,900; Donahey, 491,377.

Former Governor Frank B. Willis, Republican, continued with a substantial lead over W. A. Julian, of Cincinnati, for United States Senator to succeed Senator Harding. On returns from 4,037 precincts Willis' lead was 135,048. The vote stood: Willis, 602,875; Julian, 468,827.

DAVIS CARRIES ROSS COUNTY

(By Associated Press)

Chillicothe, O., November 3.—Complete returns from Ross county on the gubernatorial race show that Davis carried the county by 1,547. The vote: Davis, 8,950; Donahey, 7,403.

PRESIDENT-ELECT READY FOR TASKS

Work of Formulating Administrative Policy Begun

Has Already Commenced To Consider Foreign Policy

Thousands of Telegrams And Letters of Congratulation Received

Framing of Administrative Machinery Already Being Considered.

(By Associated Press)

Marion, O., November 3.—No longer a party nominee, but President-elect of the United States, Warren G. Harding turned his back toward rest and recreation today before approaching the formulation of his administration machinery and policy.

He plans to take a real vacation trip which will give him two weeks of seclusion on the Texas coast and a week scouting in the Panama canal zone before he goes to work choosing his cabinet and mapping out the work he is to do after March 4th.

A few fagots of the campaign remained to be cleared away from his desk, however, and he will devote two or three days to rounding out his affairs here. He probably will leave Saturday morning not to return again until mid-December.

One of his tasks today was to read and acknowledge hundreds of telegrams of congratulations.

During the night as the proportions of the landslide to him became apparent the telegraph office was flooded beyond capacity and the influx of messages of greetings and good wishes continued to come in proportion that outdid the lavish days of the campaign.

Satisfied of his own sweeping victory the new president-elect carefully watched the congressional returns today to determine how great would be the Republican strength and he was particularly interested in the reports of the various senatorial elections because of the important part the next Senate is to play in formulating a foreign policy.

It is no secret the major concern of the Republican leaders was over the local fight made on a number of Republican senatorial nominees and Mr. Harding voiced unmeasured delight that the outlook was for retention of the upper branch of Congress.

Mr. Harding remains a member of the United States Senate and if his plans now shape up he probably will not make more than a short visit at most to the national capital before inauguration day.

He has a standing "pair" with Senator Underwood of Alabama, the Democratic Senate leader and his friends say that unless some emergency arises he will let that arrangement protect the Republican majority in the opening week of the session next month.

On January 1st when election figures indicate Governor Cox will be succeeded in this state by Harry L. Davis, the Republican candidate for governor, Mr. Harding probably will resign his senate seat. Because of the slender Republican margin at present in the upper house he does not desire to step out sooner and permit the governor to fill the vacancy by the appointment of a Democrat.

The election result yesterday immediately set in motion at Harding headquarters a train of speculation as to probable choices for cabinet positions and other high posts. It has been indicated on every hand, however, that selections for these places would be made deliberately and any present forecast would be regarded only as purely speculative.

Senator Harding has before him the task of bringing together the council of leading statesmen to map out a plan for an association of nations. This he has promised to do as soon as possible and it is understood he will not wait until he has been inaugurated to lay the foundations for the work.

HEAVY VOTE OF 2,000,000 FOR SOCIALISTS

Election of Victor Berger To Congress is Claimed

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, November 3.—Socialist party headquarters here this morning claimed 2,000,000 votes in the country, more than three times what the party got in 1916 and more than twice its record vote of 1912.

The socialists also claimed the election of Victor Berger to congress in Wisconsin and the election of eight assemblymen and one state senator in New York City.

Latest returns from Berger's district, however, showed him running more than 1,000 behind his opponent. Hope was held at national headquarters of the election to congress of Meyer London, in New York.

No word had yet been received from socialist strongholds in Oklahoma.

CRABBE ACT FACES DEFEAT

Prohibition Amendment Losing Early Return Lead

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 3.—The Crabbe prohibition enforcement act was fast losing ground this morning as additional returns came in. The vote in 1364 precincts was: yes, 145,593; no, 198,928.

Insisted On Voting After Being Refused

Details As to Cause of Killing Conflicting

(By Associated Press)

Orlando, Fla., November 3.—A negro named Perry, who shot and killed two men at Ocoee, after having been refused a vote, was lynched early today outside the corporate limits of Orlando. He was hanged to a tree and his body riddled with bullets.

Election officials said Perry was refused a vote because he had not returned his poll tax.

He returned to the voting place last night with a shot gun and opened fire on white men, killing two, one a veteran of the world war, and wounding several others. Perry was arrested and later was taken from the officers by a mob.

HUNDREDS ENJOY THE EVENING AT MEMORIAL HALL

Hundreds of people Tuesday evening enjoyed an evening of good music, dancing and refreshments at Memorial Hall and at the same time were apprised of the latest returns from the election.

It was an affair especially planned by the American Legion and proved a thorough success. The dance floor, just recently refinished, was an inducement to many couples and the "jitney hop" end of the entertainment was the real attraction.

Seats were available for three hundred persons and these were filled most of the time by persons weary of standing on the streets during the long cold evening.

Harvey's Orchestra, always a drawing card, furnished splendid music.

Canteen service was one of the features. Captain Charles Allen was in charge of the 'commissary department' and his equanter was liberally patronized.

DOOR IS DECORATED WITH REAL CREPE

Republicans were asking someone to call an undertaker Wednesday morning when it was discovered that crepe was hanging on the door of Democratic headquarters.

Some time during the early morning hours of Wednesday a regulation display of crepe was tacked to the door. It happened that one of the first men to notice it was the undertaker.

Democrats took the joke good naturedly and laughed with the victorious Republicans.

UNPARALLELED REPUBLICAN PLURALITIES ARE RECORDED

Defeat in Fight For Congress
Conceded by Democrats

Victory of Republicans Sweeps
Every Section

State and Local Candidates Are Defeated in Great Slide.

(By Associated Press)

New York, November 3.—One of the most sweeping Republican victories in party history today stood recorded for Senator Harding for president, and a Republican congress.

Tremendous and unparalleled Republican pluralities beginning with the first count of ballots in yesterday's election continued mounting today.

Defeat in their fight both for the presidency and congress was conceded early by Democratic national leaders on the basis of the crushing Republican vote and despite the absence even early today of final and official figures.

With the presidency and congress went loss to the Democrats of governors, state legislatures and other state and local candidates.

The break even threatened to extend into the border states hitherto "solid south" with Republican gains in some southern states larger than any since the Civil War.

Senator Harding's victory in what Governor Cox of Ohio his Democratic opponent, and other Democratic leaders and many Republicans hailed as the "solemn referendum" upon the League of Nations was impressive. In the absence of final figures the swelling tide of huge pluralities early today gave him assurance of 329 votes in the electoral college as against the 127 for Gov. Cox, with 75 doubtful inclusive states where the Republican tide was running strong.

The unofficial results presaged a larger majority in the electoral college for Senator Harding and his running mate, Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, than any since 1888, except the lone instance of 435 for President Wilson in 1912 during the Republican "split."

The Republican congressional swing was strong, increased majorities in both Senate and House being marked up. Early today virtually all fifteen Republican senators for re-election were spelled by the returns while about a half dozen of the 19 Democratic candidates were battling against Republican leads.

The first trial of woman suffrage contributed largely to the Republican majorities and also was a factor in delaying the count in many states.

None of the minor parties, the Socialist, Farm Labor nor Prohibition figured in the result. Socialist headquarters claimed an increase vote and the party re-elected three New York Socialist assemblymen who had been expelled.

OHIO RETURNS MAJORITIES ARE SMASHING ALL VOTE RECORDS

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., November 3.—Ohio, the home of the Democratic and Republican candidates for president, yesterday cast its vote decisively in favor of Senator Warren G. Harding.

His election came on his 55th birthday. On returns from 4128 precincts out of the 7,145 in the state early today Senator Harding was leading his opponent by 106,070.

If this ratio be maintained Harding would carry his home state by approximately 339,000, the greatest plurality ever given by the Buckeye state for any candidate for office.

The vote from 4,128 precincts was: Harding, 632,109; Cox, 435,039.

Former Mayor Harry L. Davis, Republican, of Cleveland, continued to gain on late returns over State Auditor A. V. Donahey, Democrat, in the race for governorship, although he probably failed to carry his home county of Cuyahoga, and Democratic state headquarters still continued to claim the election of Donahey.

The tabulated vote from 2,539 precincts gave Davis a lead of 55,884 and stood: Davis, 318,975; Donahey, 263,091.

Former Governor Frank B. Willis, Republican, had a substantial lead of 81,533 over W. A. Julian, Democrat, for United States Senator to succeed Warren G. Harding.

Returns from 2397 precincts gave Willis 309,706 and Julian 228,173.

Scattering returns from 806 precincts largely from the larger cities gave a lead of 35,749 votes against ratification of the Cralbe prohibition enforcement act.

Returns from 1132 precincts on Secretary of State gave Harvey C. Smith a substantial lead over W. D. Fulton, Democrat, of Newark. Smith is the present incumbent.

Republican leaders claimed the election of a new legislature overwhelmingly Republican and also election of all state officers from Governor down the ticket.

MILK SHORTAGE AMONG FRENCH

(By Associated Press)

Paris, (By Mail)—Shortage of milk is predicted by newspapers as likely to become more acute this winter than last. The police have announced that recognition of priority cards for children and the aged and ill, will be more strictly enforced and fraudulent practices prosecuted.

Milk prices jumped the day after restriction on its use by hotels and restaurants became more arbitrary in their accustomed attitude of selling milk only to those who bought freely of other more profitable supplies.

HERALD SCREEN GIVES STORY OF ELECTION

For several hours Tuesday night

The Herald kept a huge crowd of men and women posted on the progress of the canvass of election returns in the county, state and nation flashing the returns upon the huge screen placed opposite The Herald office.

First returns were received before six o'clock and from that time onward until there was no doubt as to the result, interesting data was thrown upon the screen almost every moment, bringing shouts of approval from first one group and then the other.

While the big crowd watched the screen, braving the biting wind to do so, a force of busy workers inside The Herald office received and compiled the returns so that they could readily be understood by everyone.

In addition to tabulating the returns and announcing them by bulletins on the big screen, countless numbers of telephone calls were received, including a great number from newly enfranchised women voters.

No election in recent years has aroused the interest shown in that of Tuesday.

HARTMAN THEATER COLUMBUS

"Clarence" the new comedy by Booth Tarkington, which was the reigning success in both New York and Chicago during the past winter, will be presented at the Hartman theater Columbus, Ohio, for three nights, beginning Monday, November 8, and a Wednesday matinee. This delightful comedy is as typically Tarkington as are his stories. It is a rich expression of the author's personality; it glows and chuckles with humor. Of character rather than of plot is the mirth evoked by "Clarence." It concerns a demobilized soldier, but not a man of glory, who is the hero of the play; a quaint and rather mysterious youth, specially awkward and slightly eccentric, a cryptic creature, but not a caricature, for the world is full of Clarence. In search of a job he finds employment in the home of a rich man with an obstreperous family. And then, things begin to happen in true Tarkington fashion. No less important in the story are the two children of the rich man, two perfectly drawn Tarkington adolescents, in which the author again proves himself a comic philosopher. Other characters of equally delightful mould are also to be found. The important members of the cast are Gregory Kelly, Ruth Gordon, Robert Adams, Byron Beasley, Florence Fair, Grace Milkins, Guy d'Ennery and others. Mail orders should be sent at once.

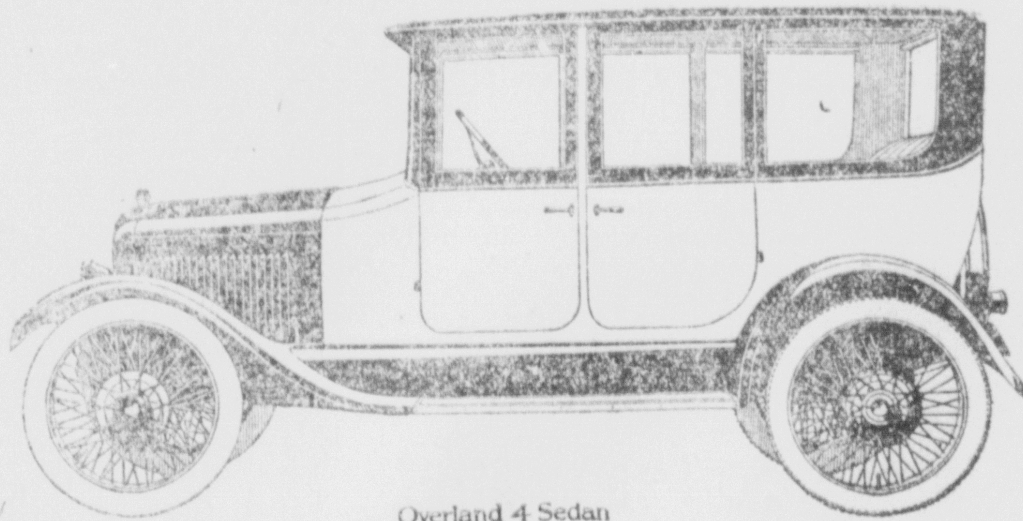

Thursday brings to the Hartman theater a musical comedy of excellence adapted from farce of Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Magistrate" entitled "Good Morning Judge." It will conclude the week at the Hartman with a Saturday matinee included. The production has a distinct English flavor and is replete with humorous situations characteristic of Pinero. Adrian Ross and Percy Greenback are responsible for the lyrics and an unusually attractive score is from the pen of Lionel Monckton. Shep Camp, as the judicial gentleman with white light proclivities, is a real joy to his audiences, and the cast also includes Sue Parker, a dainty comedienne; Clyde Dilson, Gatenby Barker, Lillian Lee Anderson, J. S. Murray, Beresford Lovett and others.

WHEAT PROSPECTS ARE INCREASING

Wheat prospects are increasing rapidly since the rains of the past week or ten days, which has added new impetus to the growing wheat and brought forth the wheat sown in the dry soil and some of which had not sprouted.

While the acreage is not as large as last year, the prospects are very good and late sowing has prevented serious damage by the fly.

The Election

The presidential election of 1920 has been held and, while the result has been, in all respects, save in the tremendous extent of the Republican victory, a matter which impartial observers have long seen clearly and forecasted, there are few Americans indeed who are not sincerely glad that the turmoil and confusion of campaign time is behind us for another four year period and the result formally declared by the electors of the nation.

It is much too early to undertake to analyze and to account for the tremendous majorities registered by the voters, in every section of the nation, for the Republican ticket and the Republican candidates. The victory of Senator Harding and the Republican tickets everywhere, national and state, is so emphatic that neither the victors nor the vanquished should hastily draw conclusions from it.

Officials swept into office on the great tidal wave of votes should have a care lest they erroneously conclude that the size of the vote is unrestricted license to them. The defeated partisans should not see, in the present overwhelming defeat a permanent repudiation of any future opposition to the victors in Tuesday's results.

The nation has passed through a remarkable era during the past five years, an era in which people have been called upon to bear many burdens and many petty annoyances. Grievances, great and small, have multiplied themselves into a bewildering accumulation of discontent with the existing conditions and with the officials and the party believed responsible for it all.

The American people are a marvelously adaptable people. They can change to meet conditions quickly. They are understanding. They can and do react promptly.

The one outstanding and unmistakable feature of the voting is the emphatic disapproval expressed of the present national administration. That expression, however, may be found, on more mature consideration, to have been more the result of an accumulation of minor grievances than a real and deliberate repudiation of the greater achievements and a reversal of the broader policies.

Passing time will clear up any erroneous conclusion that the more impulsive may draw from Tuesday's balloting.

America unanimously greets the President-elect and stands squarely behind his every patriotic endeavor. There will be an end of bitterness and complaining and the next administration should be able to go forward free from bitter memories of burdens borne or wrongs suffered.

A Farmers' Strike?

There seems to be little doubt, judging from news reports and comment that in some sections of the country the farmers are withholding their wheat crop from the market. The most generally accepted announced reason is that they are holding for a higher price than is being offered on the market.

Beyond all question the farmer has been, for years, the victim of market manipulators and the price of his products have been arbitrarily fixed by manipulators of finance and grain exchange leaders who produce nothing of the world's food supply.

The enormous difference in the price of farm products—grain and live stock—paid the farmer who does all the producing and takes all the chances, betting year in and year out, his investment, his time and his labor against the elements, the insects and all other destructive forces, has his reward fixed by the speculators.

It isn't right. About that there can be no argument, but we question very much whether the farmers who go on a strike, by withholding their crops from the market, are going to better matters.

Means so radical as that seldom ever result in real and permanent betterment. They rather add to the confusion and alienate friends from the cause of right by the very necessity for relief.

The whole trouble with all such movements is that the innocent suffer.

Our American farmers have been the great reliable force of the nation—the great dependable conservative body of citizenship which has, in its very stability, been the solid rock upon which radicalism has beaten itself out and we would regret to see any step taken by that great bulwark of the nation toward radicalism.

POETRY FOR TODAY

AUTUMN

Welcome! Autumn, thy beautiful glow

Of red, and gold and brown I know
And love; now wildly leaps my heart
With joy, telling me I am part
Of each seductive autumn day.
My song, one with the song-bird's lay,
Closely I hug this wondrous thought,
That in my soul some force hath wrought.

In ecstasy, O radiant Fall,
I welcome thee; thine is the call,
That stirs to feeling in my breast
A wonderful, sweet eagerness
To seek the woodland's quiet shade.
To hear the song-bird's serenade;
With canopy of flaming red,
And gold and brown, just overhead.

So fair thy days, fall season, bright
With colors, and soft hazy light,
The air is filled with droning song
Of grasshopper, and insect throng,
Flitting among the lovely flowers,
Gathering sweet honey, ere the hours
Of winter's chill, when spotless pall
Of fleecy snow shall cover all.

EXPECTATIONS OF IMPARTIAL EXPERTS ARE FULLY VERIFIED

No Chance For Cox From The Beginning of The Campaign Sullivan Says

One Trump Card Held by Republicans Was Disapproval Of Wilson

Defeated Candidate Though Certain of Conditions Made Gallant Fight.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

The very earliest returns bore out what has been the expectation for the last six weeks since the middle of September. Everybody close to the facts, who kept themselves free of the violent emotions characteristic of the close of a campaign knew that Cox could not win. For the larger portion of that time they also knew that the Republican expectation of a landslide were more or less justified. There were periods of a few days when the Republicans fortunes were a little impaired by misadventures; there were periods when it seemed, to disinterested observers, that while the Republicans would surely win they would not have that "historic victory" which in their inner councils they expected but the Des Moines speech, the race issue, where it appeared locally and the last hour return of a portion of the Irish vote to the Democratic fold—all these were mere ripples made by light breezes on the surface and it did not set back the tremendous and cumulative force of disapproval of Wilson and the Democratic administration which began in November 1918, and has been steadily increasing since.

It was not in the cards for Cox to win. He made some mistakes and suffered for them. He might have done a little better, but there was no possible combination of the cards he held by which he could win.

The Republicans held one card which was not only a trump but was ace, joker and half a dozen other cards combined. That card was resentment against Wilson. The Republicans could sit still hold tight to that card and let Cox do his best. As a matter of fact of course the Republicans did not rely on this but conducted an extremely intelligent campaign. But that card alone was enough to prevent Cox from winning. Cox might have done some things a little better but nothing he could have done would have made him a winner. Unquestionably the Democratic campaign was poorly managed; unquestionably also hindsight can point out various things that Cox might have done and some he might have avoided. But, with the whole story now known, no one can safely presume that there was any possible combination by which Cox could have overcome the one invincible asset that the Republicans had.

The thing to remember about Cox now is that, under circumstances whose discouragement was apparent to every observer, Cox managed to keep himself above these circumstances, managed to keep his mind free of them and made a gallant fight to the end.

It would be futile at so early a moment to attempt any generalization but a few things are clear. Among these is that Senator Harding's quiet instinctive feeling about the League of Nations and about the other issues of the campaign show him to be completely sympathetic to the common feelings of the average man on these subjects. A large part of the Democratic campaign and especially a large part of the arguments of the friends of the league of Nations had been based on the assumption that Senator Harding chose his position on the League as a matter of intelligent artfulness, as a matter of political expediency. That is not true there is not enough art in Senator Harding, personally, to do this. What he did was merely to take the position that was instinctive to him personally and it turned out that what he felt was the normal feeling of the average man. In his heart and in his public addresses Senator Harding's great emphasis was not laid on the League of Nations. It was laid on disapproval of what he called the autocratic government of President Wilson. It was a plea for a return to accustomed forms of government. That probably was the plea that went far to make him kin to the average man.

Mexico Seems to Be the Only Place Nowadays Where Bandits May Enjoy Any Considerable Degree of Personal Liberty.

the first hours after the polls closed the returns began to verify the expectation that this was decidedly the kind of an election in which the tail goes with the hide, when there is such a drift as this it sweeps on and on, the Republicans will control the presidency, the senate and the lower house during the new administration they will name four justices of the Supreme Court. The course of the country for a measurably period of its history will be colored by this Republican victory.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Eva J. Penn graciously extended the hospitality of her spacious home to the Browning Club Tuesday night for the celebration of its Silver Anniversary.

Twenty-five years ago a small group of teachers and students met in this same home and organized the Browning Club under the leadership and guidance of Dr. N. H. Chaney then Superintendent of the Public Schools of this city.

The club's one aim was the study of Browning, with Dr. Chaney, greatly beloved by the club, as reader and interpreter. Some of the charter members were Mesdames Minnie Brown, Charlotte Tuttle, Margaret Dalbey, Haidee VanWinkle Coffman, Minnie Case, Eva J. Penn, Minnie Bush, Julia H. Kennedy, Misses Amy Con, Clara Thurston, Anna Bell, Gertrude and Edith Gardner, Minnie Light, Fanny Persinger.

The Charter members were honored guests of the club and the evening was fraught with many happy memories to them.

The President, Mrs. Julia H. Dahl, presided and following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the program was placed in the hands of the Household Economics Department Mrs. Mary G. Burgett and Mrs. Amy Hudson sang beautifully "The Mandolin," their voices blending admirably.

Mrs. Estella K. Blackmer, Department Chairman, revived briefly the history of the Browning Club and introduced Dr. Chaney, who had come over from Youngstown the especially honored guest of the club, as a man of national reputation as an educator and an inspired student and lecturer on Browning.

Dr. Chaney expressed great pleasure in again being with the Browning Club and said that its organization was one of the monumental things of his life and he was indeed glad that this club of nearly one hundred members is keeping up its high ideals and filling a real place in the community life. Dr. Chaney then gave the themes of several British poems as follows: "The Patriot"—the spirit of unselfishness; doing the great deed for God's sake, whether received by the people or not; people wildly acclaim their benefactors in prospect, but crinkly them in practice; the great deed sinks rapidly from wild welcome to eager martyrdom through the details of its enforcement. "My Last Duchess"—Supreme selfishness is tragic—people may possess intellectual refinement, but wholly lacking in spirituality, "Count Gismond" the power of purity to prevail against peril.

"Justus Tyrannis" the power of peril. The fundamental teachings in Browning are God is love; Christ the revelation of love, beauty, truth and goodness are immortal, life is progress; evil is present in the world, but merely to strengthen good; growth in spirit is actively against evil."

A hundred club members and guests felt that they had enjoyed a real literary treat and the spirit of the original Browning Club was revived in full measure.

Following the reading of Browning there was an informal reception for Dr. Chaney and his wife, both of whom responded cordially to the warmth of the welcome extended.

The evening's receiving line was formed with Mrs. Penn, Mrs. Dahl, President; Mrs. Blackmer, department chairman; Mrs. Maggie Hopkins, vice chairman, the members of the Household Economic department acted as urshers.

The home was beautifully decorated with a gorgeous variety of chrysanthemums, brought by department members from their own gardens. These members also presided in the dining room, where punch and wafers were served. Sociability reached the high water mark in the delightful closing hour of the evening.

Miss Carrie E. Thompson, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Thompson of the Lewis pike, surprised ed many friends by her marriage to Mr. B. A. Machan in Columbus, Tuesday November second, at the First M. E. Church of Bryden Road, Rev. Havighurst officiating.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight, Mrs. Ralph Strayer and Mrs. A. Sawin.

The bride, a very pretty brunette, was attractively gowned in a navy satin with moire ruffles as trimming—a Fisk hat of taupe panne velvet with Alice blue facing. A beautiful corsage of rosebuds completed her costume. She wore away a traveling suit of navy blue serge parisian trimmed, and seal coat.

The bride is a graduate of Domestic Science from Thomas School Detroit, Mich. Since her graduation, she has been head dietitian at the Franklin County Sanatorium at Columbus.

The groom is a very talented musician and composer, and has studied under Professors Miller, Heydler and Machan of Cleveland. Mr. Machan served two years overseas with the 331st Regimental Band, and upon his return toured the West, South and East with the Howard Quintet. At present he is a member of "Kraetke's Famous New York Orchestra."

After November tenth, Mr. and Mrs. Machan will be at home at 7 Avondale Park, Rochester, N. Y.

Friends archiving an opportunity to personally extend congratulations to the young couple, who are spending a few days with the bride's parents, Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson entertained with a four course wedding dinner, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Machan. The additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Tracey, Miss Georgia Taylor and Mr. Donald Moots.

During the past week several pre-nuptial affairs have been given in honor of the bride, Mrs. A. Lawin, superintendent of the Franklin County Sanatorium gave a dinner, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight honored Mr. and Mrs. Machan with a luncheon Tuesday noon at their home in Wilson avenue, Columbus.

Among the guests at these functions were Mrs. E. Hendryx, Mrs. A. Lawin, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Strayer.

An extremely pretty, altho quite simple wedding of much interest to a large family connection and many friends took place Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Doris McCoy, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mart L. McCoy, and Mr. Robert J. Johnston, younger son of Mrs. Samuel Johnston, of Clinton Avenue, were united in marriage at the home of the bride in North Fayette street.

Rev. Karl B. Alexander of Grace M. E. Church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The spacious rooms were effectively decorated with autumn flowers and silver vases filled with pink and white chrysanthemums were mounted on pedestals guarding either side of the double doors leading into the living room, where the young couple stood for the marriage ceremony.

A large basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums graced the dining room table and ferns and palms decorated the hall.

The bride, who is an unusually beautiful girl of brunette type and charming in her personality, wore a modish gown of midnight blue velvet, with draped skirt and blouse, finished with sash and bow at the left side—the bodice, with square neck, was beaded. For going away her costume was completed by a top coat of brown velvet, with brown velvet hat and brown shoes.

Mrs. Johnston was graduated from Walnut Lane School, Germantown, Pa. in Domestic Science Department, and taught this branch successfully in the Plattsburg Centralized Schools in Clark County.

The bridegroom is a sterling young fellow, who was too young to enter service and has been associated with his brother, Mr. Jas. Johnston, in the grocery business in Oakland avenue. Good wishes in overflowing measure are being extended from a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left for a short wedding trip. Their future home will be made on the Henry Cripps land, recently purchased by the bride's father, between the Martinsburg and Leesburg pikes. The house is undergoing remodeling, but will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks.

Mrs. Mary Cockerill pleasantly entertained at dinner Tuesday Mesdames Nan Roberts, Alma Deere, Rachel Stark, I. N. Rowe and Mary Fite. Marigolds were prettily used in decoration.

Miss Doris McFadden wedded Mr. Ralph Beatty of Columbus Thursday morning at half after nine at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. McFadden in East Court street.

Miss Anna Lee McFadden sister of the bride will act as maid of honor, and Billy McFadden a cousin as ring bearer. Mrs. Lillian Weiske, head of the Vocal department of Western College at Oxford the past year, will sing.

Guests arriving for the wedding include the bride's brother, Mr. Robert McFadden, Boston, Mass., the groom's family, Mr. T. T. Beatty, daughter, Miss Marie, son Dr. Hugh G. Beatty of Columbus; also Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Jr., and Mrs. John Courtwright of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Warner Deale, daughter, Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bostwick of Mt. Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. Alva McFadden, of New Vienna, Mr. and Mrs. Trustin Morris of Highland.

Miss Beal came, Wednesday morning, to spend a few days at the McFadden home.

Mrs. L. E. Miller gave charming entertainment to the Tuesday Kensington Club, with a few favored guests, Miss Wanda Wolford, Mrs. W. V. Mueller and house guest Miss Blackman, of Akron.

Mrs. Miller used baskets of Bitter Sweet in decorating, and assisted by her young daughter, Kathryn served a dainty collation.

Employees of the Bell Telephone Company enjoyed a jolly little oyster supper served in an adjoining room to the regular office election night.

Yellow crepe paper and candles were used in beautifying the table, at which twenty of the employees were seated for the supper at ten o'clock.

Mr. Chas. Fufts of Worthington spent Tuesday the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Fufts.

Mrs. Douglas Shoaff, of Shelbyville, Ill., who has been visiting her father, Dr. W. E. Ireland, and brother, Mr. Horace C. Ireland and family, left Friday evening for Delaware to visit Ohio Wesleyan friends.

Election news sent out by the great government wireless plant at Arlington, West Virginia, Tuesday night, was clearly heard by Harold Rodecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rodecker, and a Freshman in Washington High School.

The messages were read distinctly with the aid of his six plate receiving apparatus, a small but powerful piece of mechanism.

A three hundred foot aerial has been stretched from the roof of the Rodecker home on Washington Avenue to a high tree and this combines to make the receiving station of real service by catching the faintest signals.

Starting early last evening the messages were in the air until after midnight and corresponded exactly with tabulations which appeared in the papers Wednesday morning.

Every evening the correct time, as sent out by the Arlington plant, is received at nine o'clock.

All messages sent out from the Arlington plants are in the common code and easily read by every receiver professional or amateur in the country.

NO INFORMATION
AS TO OUTCOME

No further information has been received in this city as to the outcome of the peculiar "strike" called by a Fayette county woman who refused to milk the cows after her husband had declined to take her to the polls to vote because she was of opposite political belief.

The last information was that it was about ten o'clock Tuesday morning and the cows had not been milked, while the woman was steadfastly holding to her determination not to milk the cows until she had voted.

HOSPITAL NOTES

After undergoing five weeks of special treatment at the Hodson Hospital Mrs. Harry Wiatl has been removed to her home on South Fayette street in a much improved condition.

James A. Robnett, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robnett, successfully underwent a slight operation at the Cherry Hill Hospital, Wednesday.

REMODELING WORK
WELL UNDER WAY

Work of remodeling the front of the Wills building on South Fayette street is well under way, and within a day or two the heavy walls will be resting upon huge steel beams, preparatory to installing plate glass at each side of the garage approach.

It will require two or three weeks to complete the work, and when it is finished the building will present a much more modern and attractive appearance.

ORGANIZE BANK
TO ASSIST TRADE

Berlin, (By Mail)—A new bank capitalized at 11,000,000 marks has been organized here by a syndicate of German bankers and industrialists to foster trade relations between Germany and Russia. The new institution will co-operate with Petrograd and Moscow banks as well as with leading Russian industrialists.

It is proposed to include the Baltic and border states in the newly formed bank's sphere of influence.

The Vossieshe's financial editor says that the lively interest displayed by the United States and England in Russian trade relations should be an incentive for Germany to turn her trade eye to the East.

He declares that world conferences will discuss the European situation in vain so long as they continue to exclude Russia from their economic calculations.

FORCED TO GIVE UP HER POSITION

Was Victim of Nervous Indigestion For Many Months Before Taking Tanlac.

"If I should be asked to name the best medicine in the world," said Miss Hattie Wellmann, 2505 Micken ave., Cincinnati, O., "I would not hesitate to say Tanlac, for it has not only relieved me of a case of nervous indigestion that kept me in misery for a year or more, but has built me up from one hundred and thirty-two pounds to one hundred and fifty-two."

"I suffered such awful pains from indigestion and often became so nervous that I would just lie down and cry. I could not get any sound sleep at all, and no one will ever know how terribly I suffered. I was under treatment all the time, but got no relief until a friend of mine got me to try Tanlac, and after taking it for about two months I had realized a complete recovery. Before taking Tanlac I was compelled to give up my position down town. Now I am feeling just fine, eat anything I want with never a touch of indigestion and sleep like a child every night. To say I am thankful to my friend who got me to try Tanlac, and to the people who made it, for the return of my health is putting it entirely too mild. I am more grateful than words can tell and earnestly recommend Tanlac to anyone suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haven, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Mill edgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Lee Ortman, Selden. — Adv.

MASSACHUSETTS HAS NEW BOXING LAW IN FORCE

(By Associated Press) BOSTON, MASS.—Boxing is on a new basis in Massachusetts. For the first time in a quarter century professional matches are open to public participation under legal sanction, and it is no longer necessary for a man who wishes to see a bout to first join a club over the meetings of which referees have been the moderators and boxers the only members who had the floor. The familiar announcement in introducing fighters that "both are members of this club" is heard no more.

The new order of things is the result of a law establishing a state boxing commission, and stipulating some of the conditions under which the sport must be conducted. These provide for ten round bouts, the rounds of three minutes each, to be conducted by clubs licensed by the commission under bonds of $5,000. Decisions are given by a referee and two judges, licensed by the commission.

The members of the board, four days after their appointment, laid down supplementary regulations under which each judge is required to write and sign his decision and the referee decides if they disagree. Under the commission's rules there can be no draw.

Every person connected with a bout must be licensed—physician, referee, judge, time-keeper, boxer, manager, trainer or second. The physician is required to examine the contestants three hours before the bout and to certify in writing that each boxer is physically fit. Licenses bear a photograph of the boxers, with the idea of preventing impersonations.

HARDING SEES VICTORY A CALL TO HIS PARTY LEAD IN NEW YORK A MILLION

Governorship Fight Continues Close in York State.

(By Associated Press)

New York City, Nov. 2.—

At 11:15 o'clock eastern time with the west and middle west still scarcely heard from, the Harding landslide in the east was continuing with gathering momentum.

At the rate the Harding column was going at that hour the Republican plurality in the state of New York would be around the unprecedented figure of more than a million.

New York City normally Democratic was going for Harding by at least half a million.

The governorship fight continued close with Republican managers claiming the defeat of Governor Smith. Pennsylvania returns at that hour showed Harding leading Cox three to one, and Senator Penrose elected.

Massachusetts was promising Harding the greatest plurality ever given a president candidate in that state.

Boston had gone Republican for the second time in its history, and had given Harding a greater lead over Cox than it gave McKinley over Bryan in 1896.

Harding carried two wards in the city of Atlanta, Ga., and two districts in the Louisiana sugar belt, both Democratic territories.

VIENNA GOVERNMENT HAS A GREAT DEFICIT FOR THE FISCAL YEAR

Vienna, (By Mail).—A deficit government for the current year of 13,000,000 crowns is admitted by the Finance Department. Other estimates, however, place it at a much larger figure, in view of the constant demands of state employees for increased wages and allowances which the government must concede.

Replying to a delegation of civil servants the government admitted that there were 60,000 more employees on the payroll at present than were covered in the estimates. Also it was confessed that it was next to impossible to reduce list and throw those people into the ranks of the unemployed with the approach of winter.

SEES VICTORY A CALL TO HIS PARTY AMERICANISM WINS SAYS HARDING

Marion, O., Nov. 2.—Receiving the election returns at his home here Mr. Harding declined during the early evening to make any comment and issued a statement only after the figures had piled up majorities for him which his advisers declared made his election certain the Senator said:

"Assuming early returns are wholly dependable I do not hesitate to say I am pleased. Of course I am happy to utter my gratitude, but I am not exultant. It is not a personal victory. It is a renewed expression of confident Americanism and a national call to the Republican party. It is all so serious, the obligations are so solemn, that instead of exulting I am more given to prayer to God to make me capable of playing my part that all these calls to responsibility may meet the aspirations and expectations of America and the world.

"I am sure the people who have voted the Republican ticket will understand my feeling. I should make no unstudied statement of policies at this time beyond the expression made throughout the campaign."

AMERICAN RELIEF PLANS TO FEED NEEDY CHILDREN

Berlin, (By Mail).—The American Relief Administration of the European children's fund is considering the possibility of feeding hungry children in Russia this winter and will submit all possible information on the subject to the competent authority in America where the decision must be made.

Two of the relief members, Messrs. Pate and Walker, who accompanied the Polish delegation to Minsk and later visited Moscow and Petrograd reported to the American Relief Administration officials here that they were greatly impressed with the system of feeding and the care for the children under bolshevist rule.

W. L. Brown, who is in charge of the relief work in Europe said "the children are given first preference under the bolshevist scheme of food distribution and, on the whole, this work is well and ably carried out within the limits of the food supplies which are available."

"Messrs. Pate and Walker reported the food conditions were bad through the portions of Russia which they saw, with every likelihood of an extremely bad winter in the big cities and consequently great suffering among the children."

Mr. Brown added that he was unable to hazard the opinion whether the American Relief will go to Russian children as the question involved political issues with which the European representatives of the American Relief Administration is unwilling to deal.

The American Relief Administration has turned over $144,762 to the American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) for feeding undernourished children. This amount will feed 140,000 children for one month.

COST OF WIVES ON THE INCREASE AMONG BURMANESE

New York.—The cost of wives has increased in the far-off Chin Hills of Burma where they are obtained on the "dollar-down" plan. Men matrimonially inclined are demanding lower and easier terms from their prospective fathers-in-law, who are compensated for their daughter's labor, declares a report by Reverend J. Herbert Cope, representative of the Baptist Foreign Missionary Society at Haka.

"This year a lively discussion grew out of the resolution that selling of daughters cease," the report continued. "The custom has grown into an abuse. Men are demanding more and more until a young chap who marries goes frightfully into debt which he is years liquidating. And, if while paying slowly for his wife, the husband incurs anger of her father, the daughter is promptly called home and in some cases sold to another man. We have been trying to get them to reduce the charges."

Efforts to induce the natives to follow the customs of white men are being made in educational institutions opened in these districts as a result of the New World Movement of Northern Baptists, Dr. Cope said.

Some people marry for love and remain married for spite.

MORE PRECINCTS MUST BE ADDED

Avalanche of Votes at Tuesday Election a Surprise.

The great avalanche of ballots, which in some instances went far over the 400 mark and even 500 mark, Tuesday surprised election board officials, and as a result of the proof of so great a number of voters, it will be necessary to re-arrange the precincts before the next election, in order that not more than 400 voters may be in any one precinct.

As a result of the great number of votes many judges and clerks were busy all night counting out the votes, and Wednesday morning were literally worn out by their 24 hours, or nearly that long, engaged in most tireless work. These election officials are vowing "never again," and are advocating change of precinct and change of system which will permit a count out of the votes as soon after the votes are cast as possible, either by double set of officials, or otherwise.

It is believed that two or three additional precincts must be added in this city to take care of the huge precincts created by the addition of the woman vote.

Winter Weather Puts Autos to The Bad Unless Care is Taken

It's the changing temperatures, extreme cold and dampness of winter, that plays havoc with automobiles—motor, paint, tires, batteries and top. Care must be exercised in winter else the owner will be the loser. A good place to keep the car saves it—and money.

One frozen battery will entail a loss equal to more than the cost of storage in a first class garage. For that reason the private garage should not be used in extreme weather. Bring your car to the Arcade Garage this winter, whether you "lay it up" or drive it. Save money by taking care of it.

We have ample facilities and an ideal location. Your car will be well cared for and reliable help will serve you. Why take the chance when it isn't at all necessary? Bad weather is ahead; we have room today; we may not tomorrow. Drive in.
